

At PROGRESSVEST SDN BHD, we provide a variety of support and services to various corporate and organization according to their needs. These include computer maintenances, troubleshooting and repair. We have a range of service plan catered to various customers depending on their needs. We are always ready to customize our support plan to your needs, from your regular office support plan to your business critical 24 hours a day support.

Let us help you streamline and improve your company's IT infrastructure. With our years of IT experience and know how, we can examine existing IT infrastructure and provide suggestions/solutions catered and tailor made to accommodate your needs, or create/design a new IT infrastructure that will accommodate your current and future needs.

Apart from servicing, we also provide to those of you looking to purchase a computer system, we provide many different kinds of computer according to your needs from the cost effective clone computer to a high end branded server, not to mention various kind of laptops. If you are ever in doubt of your needs feel free to talk to any of our courteous staff and we would be happy to help you. We are also the authorized dealer of many different kind of products among them HP, Compaq, Acer, IBM and Epson.

If you are looking for software solutions, we supply a variety of different software from operating system, accounting and others to those which are more specific like design. We can provide software from Microsoft, Adobe and other major software companies.